GUY ABRAHAMSON (1999 - 02)

Abrahamson earned Second Team NSCAA All-America honors in 2001 and 2002. He guided the Scarlet Knights to a 15-7-3 record and a final ranking of No. 9 in the NSCAA poll in 2001 and an 8-8-3 mark in 2002. Moving to back from the midfielder position he occupied the previous three seasons, Abrahamson was the catalyst for an offense that registered 44 goals and allowed just 28 in 2001. Abrahamson netted two goals and five assists his junior season with one goal and two assists his senior year.

BILL ANDRACKI (1990 - 91)

The Scarlet Knight netminder for two seasons, Andracki was named an All-American following a trip to the National Championship match in 1990. In 1990, he kept both Evansville and UCLA from scoring ultimately falling to the Bruins in a penalty kick shootout. In two seasons, Andracki recorded 23 shutouts which is fourth on the Rutgers all-time list and 171 saves which ranks seventh in RU history.

ALAN BRANIGAN (1993 - 96)

Branigan's effectiveness cannot merely be measured in goals or assists. A 1993 third-team All-America choice, his feared presence in the lineup kept the nation's top scorers away from the Scarlet Knight goal. Time after time, he shut down All-Americans and top scorers with his tenacious marking ability. He was a member of three NCAA Tournament teams and played a key role in leading RU to the 1994 Final Four.

ART BRINKMANN (1952 - 55)

The first Scarlet Knight booter to have his jersey retired, Art Brinkmann was one of the founders of Rutgers Soccer. He was the program's first All-American, claiming the honor in 1954 and holds the school record with six goals in a match. A three-time All-East selection, he scored 49 career goals. He was team captain his junior and senior season, was named the Alfred Sasser Award Winner in 1954 and appeared in Who's Who in American Colleges & Universities in 1954 and 1955. Brinkmann was an alternate member of the United States Olympic Team that competed in the Summer Games in Helsinki, Finland. In 1956 he was a member of the National Champion Eintracht FC. The College Soccer Coaches Association of New Jersey elected him to its Hall of Fame in 1995.

JON CONWAY (1996 - 98)

One of the nation's best and most intimidating goalkeepers, Jon Conway earned several All-America awards following the 1999 season, a season in which Rutgers finished 12-6-3, won the BIG EAST Regular Season title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Conway turned in one of the best single-season efforts in RU history, recording a 0.88 GAA, including a league-best 0.48 mark in BIG EAST play, posting an 8-1-2 record in those contests. He turned away 11 shots in a 0-0, double-overtime tie with then No. 8 St. John's, on his way to six shutouts on the season. Conway earned Second Team NCSAA honors, as well as Second Team honors from Soccer Times and Soccer America. He was also chosen to participate in the Umbro Select All-Star Classic following the season. Conway went on to be a third-round selection of the San Jose Earthquakes in the 2000 MLS SuperDraft.

LINO DICUOLLO (1988 - 91)

Recognized as one of the nation's premier forwards during his career, DiCuollo was a 1989 All-America choice following a year in which he was also named Atlantic 10 East Division Player of the Year. In his four years, he led Rutgers to a 71-15-8 record and three NCAA Tournament appearances. He stands third on the Rutgers career points list with 122, third on the goals scored list with 48 and fourth on the assist list with 26.

BOBBY JOE ESPOSITO (1983 - 86)

Bobby Joe Esposito was one of the most prolific scorers in Rutgers history. In all four years of his career, he led Rutgers in goals, points, game-winning goals and multiple-goal games. He finished his career with 50 goals which ranks second all-time, 25 career assists (t-fourth) and 125 points (second). He started every game of his career (76) and recorded 16 multiple-goal games. Following his freshman season he was named one of Soccer America's Top 10 freshmen. In 1986, he led the team with 15 goals and four assists and was named an All-American. A stellar student, he was an Academic All-America in 1986 as well, and played in the 1986 Senior Bowl. Following his career, Esposito spent six years playing professionally in the MISL and NPSL.

STEVE FULLER (1959 - 61)

Fuller, another Rutgers All-American, played during the team's first successful era in the early 1960's. Fuller earned three letters from 1959-61 and, during that time, helped Rutgers to a 30-7-1 mark, one of the best three-year marks in program history.

JOSH GROS (2000 - 03)

Gros exploded his final season, etching his name into the single-season record books in points (10th), goals (10th) and game-winning goals (sixth) en route to NSCAA Third Team and College Soccer News Second Team All-American accolades. He was also named the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year after collecting 37 points on 16 goals and five assists. He tallied five game-winning goals in 2003, giving him six for his career. Gros found his scoring touch later in his career after not registering a goal in his first two seasons while serving as a defensive-minded midfielder. Midway through Gros' junior season he moved to an attacking midfield spot and scored six goals in 2002. Gros ended his career at Rutgers with 60 points on 22 goals and 16 assists. Selected 34th overall in the 2004 MLS SuperDraft by D.C. United, Gros became a regular starter and in August 2006 he appeared in his first MLS All-Star Game. Gros also earned his first cap with the U.S. National Team in a 2-0 victory over Mexico on February 7, 2007.

ALEXI LALAS (1988 - 91)

Three-time All-American and 1991 consensus National Player of the Year, Alexi Lalas became one of the most recognizable American athletes in the world. In his four years as a Scarlet Knight, he led RU to three NCAA tournaments, including a National Semifinal in 1989 and National Championship game in 1990. In his four seasons, Rutgers compiled a record of 71-15-8. In 1989 and 1990, he was named Third-Team All-American and in 1991, he was recognized as the nation's finest college soccer player winning the Hermann Award and the Missouri Athletic Club Trophy. That year, he was also named First-Team All-American. He was also a four-time Mid-Atlantic Region choice as well as three-time Atlantic 10 selection. A three-time captain and the only Rutgers soccer player to receive three All-America honors, Lalas was the guiding force to a 15-match unbeaten streak and Rutgers' first No. 1 ranking in the history of the program during his senior year. In August 2006, he was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame.

PEDRO LOPES (1990 - 94)

Lopes, a two-time All-American and two-time recipient of the Bob McNulty Award as the team's Most Valuable Player, played in four NCAA Tournaments, including two Final Fours during his storied collegiate career. He was named the Atlantic-10 Player of the Year in 1994 when Rutgers advanced to the Final Four for the third time in five seasons. He spearheaded a defense that allowed just 10 goals in 1990, 93 and 94. He scored the game-winning goal in the 1993 Atlantic 10 Championship game and started all 86 games in his collegiate career. Upon graduation, he played professionally with the NJ Imperials and served as an assistant coach at Rutgers for eight seasons before taking over as the head men's soccer coach at NJIT in 2003.

DAVE MASUR (1982 - 84)

Dave Masur was a two-time All-American and a three-year captain (1982-84). During those three seasons, Masur keyed the Scarlet to a combined 35-14-6 record. A perfect 17-0-2 mark in 1983 garnered Rutgers its first NCAA Tournament berth in 22 years. That season, he was the third-leading scorer on the team (from the back) with four goals and six assists. Masur won the Bob McNulty MVP Award in 1982 & 1983 and was a participant in the 1984 Senior Bowl. He graduated as Rutgers 8th all-time assist leader and 13th in all-time points.

STEVE RAMMEL (1989 - 90)

A 1990 Rutgers graduate, Steve Rammel led his team to back-to-back Final Fours in 1989 and 1990, earning All-American honors in 1990. He led RU to the National Championship game his senior season. A runner-up for the Hermann Trophy, which goes to the top college soccer player in America, in 1990, Rammel recorded 17 goals in each of his two years at Rutgers after transferring from Connecticut. He is currently the Scarlet Knights' ninth ranked all-time scorer with 84 career points. Following his Scarlet Knight career, Rammel was an All-Star with the DC United of the MLS, becoming the first player ever in MLS history to record a hat trick.

RICHARD SCHIESSWOHL (1965 - 66)

The fourth RU player to earn All-America honors, Richard Schiesswohl earned his national award following a tremendous senior season in 1966. He was the team captain in 1966 and earned the Sasser Award as well, leading the team to a 9-2-1 record.

HERB SCHMIDT (1959 - 61)

Herb Schmidt is the first two-time soccer All-American in Rutgers history. A stalwart scorer from 1959-1961, he also served as the team's captain in his senior year and was an All-Mid Atlantic selection. The Sasser Award winner, he was also a two-time All-American in Lacrosse. Considered the premier midfielder of his time, he tallied 90 goals, 23 his sophomore year, 33 as a junior, and 34 as a senior. In 1960, Rutgers finished the regular season with a perfect 11-0 record but lost a 4-3 overtime decision to Maryland in the NCAA tournament. As a student, Schmidt was a member of the Crown and Scroll honor society.

MIKE SHAW (1993 - 96)

This 1996 third-team All-American was a tremendous scorer for Rutgers. He did not boast the physical stature of some, but his presence in the box was just as feared. He led the Scarlet Knights with 12 goals and five assists in 1996. Five of those 12 goals were game-winners. He played a key part in Rutgers' three NCAA Tournament appearances in his four years and ranks tied for 10th on the all-time list with 72 career points, and 11th with 30 career goals.

PETER VERMES (1985 - 87)

A 1987 First-Team All-American and runner-up for National Player of the Year, Vermes put together one of the finest careers in Rutgers sports history. He currently ranks seventh in all-time points (89), goals scored (35), 10th in assists (19) and second in game-winning goals (15). In 1987, he earned First-Team All-America honors after scoring 21 goals, 15 assists for 52 points and leading Rutgers to the Region Finals of the NCAA Tournament. He went on to star for the U.S. National team as a member of the 1988 Olympic team and the 1990 World Cup team. He was also named 1988 U.S. Male Soccer Player of the Year. As a professional soccer player, Vermes was the first American to play in both Holland's and Hungary's First Division. The 29th overall pick in the 1996 Inaugural Major League Soccer Draft by the MetroStars, Vermes spent seven seasons in the MLS.

BILL WALSH (1997)

Walsh spent just one year as a Scarlet Knight, leading Rutgers to the 1997 BIG EAST Championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Walsh, a finalist for National Player of the Year honors, led RU with 27 points (11 G, 5 A), including game-winners in a season-opening victory over Seton Hall and West Virginia. Walsh picked up the pace in the postseason, scoring the first goal and assisting on the second to give Rutgers its first-ever BIG EAST Championship.

JASON WRIGHT (2014-2016)

A unanimous selection as Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Big Ten and a First Team NSCAA All-Region honoree, Wright earned Second Team All-America honors by the NSCAA as a sophomore in 2015. He led Rutgers with 31 points (13G, 5A) and ranked among the top 10 nationally and led the Big Ten in goals (13), total points (31) and game winners (5). Wright captured RU's first hat trick since 2013 in the 5-2 win over Yale, kicking off a streak of six-straight games finding the back of the opponent's net and also had multiple goal outings with Siena and Loyola (MD). Three of his game-winning goals came against nationally ranked competition, including No. 22 Indiana, a golden goal at No. 25 Michigan and vs. No. 16 Ohio State, which put Rutgers into first place in the Big Ten standings for the first time in school history.
